Physical description / medications / other

Lilli is sweet, well-behaved, but a little timid. She is thinner than she should be, She was reported to be 14lbs, but feels more like 7. She has a blonde and white coat that is a bit rough, but she's happy, her tail is almost always wagging in agreement.

Lilli is newly adopted. She managed to get out of her cone and slip through the side gate. She is not wearing her tags as we just brought her home on 11/12/19. Lilli is quiet and gentle. She does not bark much and is very observant.
